The first sign is often a tingling feeling on the skin, itchiness or a stabbing pain. The risk of heart problems is increased with age (women older than 35 years) or women with frequent smoking (15 cigarettes a day).

I did listen to my heart and the only thing he confirmed was that it was skipping.